Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

At its meeting on October 25, 2023, the registrant's board of directors amended and restated the registrant's bylaws effective October 25, 2023, to make changes as described below.

- Procedural mechanics and disclosure and delivery requirements in connection with stockholder nominations of directors and submission of stockholder proposals have been enhanced, including to reference the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") rules regarding universal proxy cards that became effective in 2022.
- For director nominations by stockholders and for proposals to be brought at the annual meeting of stockholders, the required advance notice window period in most cases is now between 120 and 150 days in advance of the anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting (instead of the previous general deadline of 45 days before the anniversary of the earlier of mailed notice for, or public disclosure of the date of, the last annual meeting). This window also applies for timely notice of director nominations for inclusion on a universal proxy card. For the 2024 annual meeting, such nominations or proposals must in most cases be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the registrant no earlier than December 19, 2023 and no later than January 18, 2024. (The separate, earlier deadline for stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the registrant's proxy statement pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8 is not affected by the bylaws and is unchanged.)
- Some procedures around the calling of a special meeting by stockholders have been clarified.
- The provision regarding providing a list of stockholders has been updated to reflect changes to Delaware law.
- A section regarding adjournment of stockholder meetings has been added and reflects some recent changes to Delaware law, including addressing an adjournment caused by a technological issue with the meeting platform in the case of a virtual meeting.
- Statements that reference the applicable stockholder voting standards (unchanged from the statutory default standards) have been added.
- An election has been added to be governed by Delaware General Corporation Law Section 141(c)(2) with respect to committees of the board of directors.
- The amended and restated bylaws also include other clerical and conforming updates.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the registrant's bylaws as amended and restated on October 25, 2023, which are filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this current report.

OF

KRONOS WORLDWIDE, INC.
a Delaware Corporation
(Amended and Restated as of October 25, 2023)

ARTICLE I.
REGISTERED AGENT AND OFFICES

Section 1.1. Registered Agent and Office. The registered agent and office of the corporation shall be such person or entity and located at such place within the state of Delaware as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

Section 1.2. Other Offices. The corporation may also have offices at such other places, both within and without the state of Delaware, as the corporation's board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II.
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 2.1. Place and Time of Meetings. Annual meetings of stockholders shall be held on such date, time and place, if any, either within or without the State of Delaware, as may be designated by resolution from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or a duly executed waiver thereof, at which the stockholders shall elect by a plurality vote a board of directors and shall transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. The chair of the board, the president, the chief executive officer, the board of directors or the holders of at least 15 percent of the shares of the corporation that would be entitled to vote at such a meeting may call special meetings of stockholders. If a special meeting is called by any person or persons other than the board of directors, the request shall be in writing, specifying the nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and in the case of a special meeting called by one or more stockholders shall be accompanied by a notice setting forth the information, representations and other materials required for a stockholder proposal to be brought before an annual meeting under Section 2.2 of these bylaws or required for a director nomination under Section 3.2 of these bylaws, as applicable, as to any business proposed to be conducted or nominations proposed to be presented at such special meeting, which shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by facsimile transmission to the chair of the board, the president, the chief executive officer or the secretary of the corporation.

A special meeting called in accordance with these bylaws shall be held at such date, time and place, if any, within or without the state of Delaware as may be designated by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or a duly executed waiver thereof; provided, however, that in the case of a special meeting called by one or more stockholders who satisfy the requirements of these bylaws, the date of any such special meeting shall be not more than ninety (90) days after the request to call the special meeting by such stockholder or stockholders is received by the secretary. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as limiting, fixing, or affecting the time when a meeting of stockholders called by action of the board of directors may be held. The board of directors may determine, in its sole discretion, that any meeting will not be held at a place, but may instead be held solely by means of remote communication as provided under the Delaware General Corporation law.

Section 2.2. Business to be Transacted at Meetings. At a meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. To be properly brought before a special meeting, business must be specified in the notice of the meeting (or any supplement thereto). To be properly brought before an annual meeting, business must be (a) specified in the notice of the meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the board of directors, (b) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors or (c) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder. For business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder (other than a nomination of a person for election as a director, which is governed by Section 3.2 of these bylaws), the stockholder intending to propose the business (for purposes of this section, the “proponent”) must, in addition to any requirements imposed by federal securities law or other applicable laws, have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the secretary of the corporation. To be timely for an annual meeting, a stockholder’s notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation not less than one hundred twenty (120) days nor more than one hundred fifty (150) days in advance of the anniversary of the previous year’s annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within thirty (30) days before or after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder in order to be timely must be so received no later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or the public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made, whichever first occurs. In no event shall the adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting, or the public announcement of such an adjournment or postponement, commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder’s notice as described above. For purposes of these bylaws, public disclosure shall be deemed to include a disclosure made in a press release reported by a national news service or in a document filed by the corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act. To be in proper written form, a proponent’s notice to the secretary must set forth:

(i) as to each matter the proponent proposes to bring before the annual meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and, if such business includes a proposal to amend the bylaws, the text of the proposed amendment) and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, and

(ii) as to the proponent and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is being made,

(A) the name and address of each such person, and of any holder of record of the proponent’s shares as they appear on the corporation’s books,

(B) the class and number of all shares of capital stock of the corporation that are owned by each such person (beneficially and of record) and owned by any holder of record of each such person’s shares, as of the date of the proponent’s notice, and a representation that the proponent will notify the corporation in writing of the class and number of such shares owned of record and beneficially by each such person as of the record date for the meeting not later than five (5) business days following the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting,

(C) any material interest of each such person, or any affiliates or associates of each such person, in such business,

(D) a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to such business between or among each such person and any of its affiliates or associates, and any others (including their names) acting in concert with any of the foregoing, and a representation that the proponent will notify the corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of such record date for the meeting not later than five (5) business days following such record date,

(E) a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any derivative instruments, swaps, warrants, short positions, profit interests, options, hedging transactions, borrowed or loaned shares or other transactions) that has been entered into as of the date of the proponent’s notice by, or on behalf of, each such person or any of its affiliates or associates, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of each such person or any of its affiliates or associates with respect to shares of stock of the corporation, and a representation that the proponent will notify the corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of such record date for the meeting not later than five (5) business days following such record date,

(F) a representation that the proponent is a holder of record or beneficial owner of shares of the corporation entitled to vote at the annual meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business,

(G) a representation whether the proponent intends to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the corporation’s outstanding shares required to approve the proposal and/or otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of the proposal, and

(H) any other information relating to each such person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filing required to be made in connection with the solicitation of proxies by each such person with respect to the proposed business to be brought by each such person before the annual meeting pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Notwithstanding anything in these bylaws to the contrary: (1) no business shall be conducted at any annual meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.2, and (2) unless otherwise required by law, if a proponent intending to propose business at an annual meeting pursuant to this Section 2.2 does not provide the information required under such section to the corporation (including providing the updated information required by clauses (ii)(B), (ii)(D) and (ii)(E) of this section by the deadlines specified therein), or the proponent (or a qualified representative of the proponent) does not appear at the meeting to present the proposed business, such business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such business may have been received by the corporation. The chair of the annual meeting (or the board of directors in advance of any such meeting) shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that business was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.2, and if he or she (or the board of directors in advance of any such meeting) should so determine, he or she shall so declare to (or the board of directors shall declare in advance of) the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted. Nothing contained in this Section 2.2 shall be deemed to affect any rights of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 promulgated under the Exchange Act (or any successor provision of law).

Section 2.3. Notice. Notice of the time, place (if any) and means of remote communication of an annual meeting of stockholders and notice of the time, place (if any), means of remote communication and purpose or purposes of a special meeting of the stockholders shall be given not less than 10, nor more than 60, days prior to the meeting to each stockholder of record of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, postage paid, addressed to the stockholder's address appearing on the corporate books of the corporation.

Section 2.4. Notice by Electronic Transmission. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively to stockholders, any notice to stockholders given by the corporation under any applicable law, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission consented to by the stockholder to whom the notice is given. Any such consent shall be revocable by the stockholder by written notice to the corporation. Notice by electronic transmission shall be deemed given: (a) if by facsimile telecommunication, when directed to a number at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (b) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (c) if by a posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the stockholder of such specific posting, upon the later of (i) such posting and (ii) the giving of such separate notice; and (d) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the stockholder.

Section 2.5. List of Stockholders. The corporation shall prepare, at least 10 days before every meeting of the stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting arranged in alphabetical order, specifying the address of and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, for a period of at least 10 days ending on the day prior to the meeting (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of meeting or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation. The original stock transfer books shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine such list or transfer book or to vote at any such meeting of stockholders.

Section 2.6. Quorum. The holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at any meeting of stockholders, counted as a single class if there be more than one class of stock entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders except as otherwise provided by statute or by the certificate of incorporation. Where a separate vote by class or series is required, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of such class or series shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum with respect to that matter. Once a quorum is present at a meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders represented in person or by proxy at the meeting may conduct such business as may be properly brought before the meeting until it is adjourned, and the subsequent withdrawal from the meeting by any stockholder or the refusal of any stockholder represented in person or by proxy to vote shall not affect the presence of a quorum at the meeting. If a quorum is not present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the chair of the meeting or the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time in the manner provided in Section 2.7 until a quorum shall be present or represented.

Section 2.7. Adjournment. When a meeting of stockholders is adjourned to another time or place (including an adjournment taken to address a technical failure to convene or continue a meeting using remote communication), notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting, except as otherwise required by this Section 2.7, if the time, place, if any, thereof, and the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting are (i) announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, (ii) displayed, during the time scheduled for the meeting, on the same electronic network used to enable stockholders and proxy holders to participate in the meeting by means of remote communication or (iii) set forth in the original notice of the meeting. At such adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. If after the adjournment a new record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote is fixed for the adjourned meeting, the board of directors shall fix as the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of such adjourned meeting the same or an earlier date as that fixed for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting, and shall give notice of the adjourned meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting as of the record date so fixed for notice of such adjourned meeting.

Section 2.8. Voting. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of the shares of capital stock of the corporation which are present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which by express provision of any applicable statute, the certificate of incorporation, these bylaws, the rules or regulations of any stock exchange applicable to the corporation, or any law or regulation applicable to the corporation or its securities, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

Section 2.9. Proxies. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for him by proxy in any manner permitted by law. No proxy shall be valid after three years from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each proxy shall be revocable unless the proxy form conspicuously states that the proxy is irrevocable and the proxy is coupled with an interest.

Section 2.10. Order of Business. The order of business at each such stockholders meeting shall be as determined by the chair of the meeting. One of the following persons, in the order in which they are listed (and in the absence of the first, the next, and so on), shall serve as chair of the meeting: the chair of the board, vice chair of the board, president, the chief executive officer, vice presidents (in the order of their seniority if more than one) and secretary. The chair of the meeting shall have the right and authority to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts and things as are necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting, including, without limitation, the establishment of procedures for the maintenance of order and safety, limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments on the affairs of the corporation, restrictions on entry to such meeting after the time prescribed for the commencement thereof, and the opening and closing of the voting polls.

Section 2.11. Appointment of Inspectors of Election. The board of directors shall appoint one or more inspectors of election (“inspectors”) to act at such meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof and make a written report thereof. The board of directors may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate is so appointed or if no inspector or alternate is able to act, the chair of the board, the vice chair of the board, the president or the chief executive officer shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at such meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspectors may be directors, officers or employees of the corporation.

Section 2.12. Confidential Voting. All proxies, ballots and vote tabulations that identify the particular vote of a stockholder shall be kept confidential, except that disclosure may be made (a) to allow the inspectors to certify the results of the vote; (b) as necessary to meet applicable legal requirements, including the pursuit or defense of judicial actions; or (c) when expressly requested by such stockholder. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the inspector from making available to the corporation, during the period prior to any annual or special meeting, information as to which stockholders have not voted and periodic status reports on the aggregate vote.

Section 2.13. Action Without a Meeting.

(a) Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holder or holders of shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which the holders of all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted.

(b) Every written consent of the stockholders shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent. No written consent shall be effective to take the action that is the subject of the consent unless, within 60 days after the date of the earliest dated consent delivered to the corporation as provided below, a consent or consents signed by the holder or holders of shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take the action that is the subject of the consent are delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the books in which proceedings of meetings of the stockholders are recorded. Such delivery shall be made by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and in the case of delivery to the corporation's principal place of business, shall be addressed to the president or chief executive officer of the corporation.

(c) Without limitation, an electronic transmission by a stockholder, or a photographic, photostatic, facsimile or other reliable reproduction of a writing signed or transmitted by a stockholder, shall be regarded as signed by the stockholder for the purposes of this section.

(d) Prompt notice of the taking of any action by stockholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who did not consent in writing to the action and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take the action were delivered to the corporation.

Section 2.14. Fixing A Record Date. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting. With respect to corporate action in writing without a meeting, such record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors nor more than 10 days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors. With respect to any other action, such record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted nor more than 60 days prior to such action.

If the board of directors does not so fix a record date:

(e) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

(f) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the board of directors is required under the laws of the state of Delaware, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent is delivered to the corporation in accordance with the requirements of such law.

Each director shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders (or a special meeting called for such purpose) by a plurality vote, except as provided in Section 3.4, and each director elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director before that director's term expires.

Section 3.2. Nomination of Director Candidates.

(a) Subject to the preferential voting rights of the holders of preferred stock or any other class of capital stock of the corporation or any series of any of the foregoing that is then outstanding, nominations for the election of directors may be made (i) by the board of directors or (ii) by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors who complies with the procedures established in this Section 3.2. In order to be eligible for election as a director, any director nominee must first be nominated in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws.

(b) Any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of a director at a meeting may nominate persons for whom such stockholder may vote only if written notice of such stockholder's intent to make such nomination is given, either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the secretary of the corporation (1) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, not less than one hundred twenty (120) days nor more than one hundred fifty (150) days in advance of the anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within thirty (30) days before or after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder in order to be timely must be so received no later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or the public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made, whichever first occurs; and (2) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders for the election of directors, by the close of business on the tenth day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first mailed to stockholders or public disclosure of the date of the special meeting was made, whichever first occurs. In no event shall the adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose of electing directors, or the public announcement of such an adjournment or postponement, commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Each such notice shall set forth:

(i) as to the stockholder who intends to make the nomination (for purposes of this section, the "proponent") and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is being made,

(B) the class and number of shares of capital stock of the corporation that are owned (beneficially and of record) by each such person and owned by any holder of record of each such person's shares, as of the date of such proponent's notice, and a representation that the proponent will notify the corporation in writing of the class and number of such shares owned of record and beneficially by each such person as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting not later than five (5) business days following such record date;

(C) a description of all agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to such nomination between each such person and any of its affiliates or associates, and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) acting in concert with any of the foregoing, and a representation that the proponent will notify the corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of the record date for the meeting not later than five (5) business days following such record date;

(D) a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any derivative instruments, swaps, warrants, short positions, profit interests, options, hedging transactions, borrowed or loaned shares or other transactions) that has been entered into as of the date of the proponent's notice by, or on behalf of, each such person or any of its affiliates or associates, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of each such person or any of its affiliates or associates with respect to shares of stock of the corporation, and a representation that the proponent will notify the corporation in writing of any such agreement, arrangement or understanding in effect as of such record date for the meeting not later than five (5) business days following such record date;

(E) a representation that the proponent is a holder of record or beneficial owner of shares of the corporation entitled to vote at the annual meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice;

(F) a representation whether the proponent intends to solicit proxies in support of director nominees other than the corporation's nominees in accordance with Rule 14a-19 promulgated under the Exchange Act (including a statement that such proponent intends to solicit the holders of shares representing at least 67% of the voting power of shares of the corporation entitled to vote on the election of directors), and

(G) any other information relating to each such person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filing required to be made in connection with the solicitation of proxies by each such person with respect to the proposed business to be brought by each such person before the annual meeting pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; and

(ii) as to each person whom the proponent proposes to nominate for election as director,

(A) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person,

(B) the principal occupation or employment of such person,

(C) the class and number of all shares of capital stock of the corporation that are owned of record and beneficially by such person,

(D) as an appendix, a completed and signed questionnaire, representation and agreement required by clause (e) of this Section 3.2, and

(E) any other information relating to such nominee that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filing required to be made in connection with the solicitation of proxies for election as directors pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Such notice must be accompanied by the written consent of each proposed nominee to being named as a nominee in the corporation's proxy statement and any accompanying proxy and to serve as a director of the corporation if elected.

(c) In addition to the information required pursuant to this Section 3.2 or any other provision of these bylaws, the corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish any other information that, among other things, (i) may reasonably be required by the corporation to determine whether the proposed nominee would be independent under the rules and listing standards of the principal United States securities exchanges upon which the stock of the corporation is listed or traded, any applicable rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any publicly disclosed standards used by the board of directors in determining and disclosing the independence of the corporation's directors, (ii) could be material to a reasonable stockholder's understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such nominee, or (iii) may reasonably be required by the corporation to determine the eligibility of such nominee to serve as a director of the corporation. If the chair of the meeting (or the board of directors in advance of any such meeting) determines that a nomination of any candidate for election as a director was not made in compliance with the applicable provisions of these bylaws, such nomination shall be void.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in these bylaws to the contrary, unless otherwise required by law, (i) if a proponent intending to make a nomination at an annual or special meeting pursuant to this Section 3.2 does not provide the information required under such section to the corporation (including providing the updated information required by clauses (b)(i)(B), b(i)(C) and (b)(i)(D) of this Section 3.2 by the deadlines specified therein), or the proponent (or a qualified representative of the proponent) does not appear at the meeting to present the nomination, such nomination shall be disregarded, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such nomination may have been received by the corporation, and (ii) if any stockholder or any affiliate or associate of, or other person acting in concert with, such stockholder (A) provides notice pursuant to Rule 14a-19(b) promulgated under the Exchange Act with respect to any proposed director nominee and (B) either (x) notifies the corporation that such stockholder or other person no longer intends to solicit proxies in support of a proposed nominee in accordance with Rule 14a-19(b) promulgated under the Exchange Act or (y) subsequently fails to comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(2) or Rule 14a-19(a)(3) promulgated under the Exchange Act (or fails to timely provide reasonable evidence that it has met the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(3) promulgated under the Exchange Act in accordance with the following sentence), then in either case the nomination of each such proposed nominee shall be disregarded, notwithstanding that proxies or votes in respect of the election of such proposed nominee may have been received by the corporation (which proxies and votes shall also be disregarded). Upon request by the corporation, if any stockholder provides notice pursuant to Rule 14a-19(b) promulgated under the Exchange Act, such stockholder shall deliver to the corporation, no later than five (5) business days prior to the applicable meeting, reasonable evidence that it has met the requirements of Rule 14a-19(a)(3) promulgated under the Exchange Act.

(e) To be eligible to be a nominee for election as a director of the corporation, a person nominated in accordance with clause (b) of this Section 3.2 must deliver (in accordance with the time periods prescribed for delivery of notice under such clause) to the secretary of the corporation at the principal executive offices of the corporation a written questionnaire with respect to the background and qualification of such person and the background of any other person or entity on whose behalf the nomination is being made (which questionnaire shall be provided by the secretary within ten (10) days of a written request therefor by a stockholder of record) and a written representation and agreement (in the form provided by the secretary within ten (10) days of a written request therefor by a stockholder of record) that such person (i) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with, and has not given any commitment or assurance to, any person or entity as to how such person, if elected as a director of the corporation, will act or vote on any issue or question that has not been disclosed to the corporation, (ii) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity other than the corporation with respect to any direct or indirect compensation, reimbursement or indemnification in connection with service or action as a director that has not been disclosed therein, and (iii) in such person's individual capacity and on behalf of any person or entity on whose behalf the nomination is being made, would be in compliance, if elected as a director of the corporation, and will comply with, applicable law and all applicable publicly disclosed corporate governance, conflict of interest, corporate opportunities, confidentiality and stock ownership and trading policies and guidelines of the corporation.

Every holder of uncertificated shares of the corporation shall be entitled upon request to have a stock certificate issued to such holder signed by the chair of the board, the president, the chief executive officer or any vice president and the secretary, any assistant secretary, the treasurer or any assistant treasurer, certifying to the number of shares owned by such stockholder. Where, however, such certificate is signed by a transfer agent or an assistant transfer agent or by a transfer clerk acting on behalf of the corporation, and a registrar or by an agent acting in the dual capacity of transfer agent and registrar, the signatures of any of the above-named officers may be facsimile signatures. In the event that any officer who has signed, or whose facsimile signature has been used on, a certificate ceases to be an officer before the certificate has been delivered, such certificate may nevertheless be adopted and issued and delivered by the corporation, as though the officer who signed such certificate or certificates, or whose facsimile signature or signatures shall have been used thereon, had not ceased to be such officer of the corporation. All certificates for shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified. The name of the person to whom either certificated or uncertificated shares are issued, with the number of shares and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the corporation. Notwithstanding any other provision in these bylaws, the corporation may adopt a system of issuance, recordation and transfer of its shares by electronic or other means not involving any issuance of certificates, including provisions for notice to purchasers in substitution for any required statements or certificates, and as may be required by applicable law, which system has been approved by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Any system so adopted shall not become effective as to issued and outstanding certificated securities until the certificates therefor have been surrendered to the corporation.

Section 6.2. Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made only upon the transfer books of the corporation or respective transfer agents designated to transfer the several classes of stock and, in the case of shares represented by a certificate or certificates, upon the surrender of a properly endorsed certificate or certificates for a like number of shares.

Section 6.3. Lost or Destroyed Certificates. The corporation may issue a new stock certificate in place of any certificate theretofore issued by it, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and the corporation shall, except as otherwise determined by the board of directors, the chair of the board, the president, the chief executive officer any vice president or other authorized officer, require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his or her legal representative, to give the corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 6.4. Registered Stockholders. The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and to hold liable for calls and assessments a person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of another person, whether or not the corporation shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by the laws of the state of Delaware.

Section 6.5. Restrictions on Transfers of Shares. Notice of any restriction on the transfer of shares of the corporation's stock shall be placed on each certificate of stock issued, or in the case of uncertificated shares, contained in the notice sent to the registered holder of such shares in accordance with the laws of the state of Delaware.

Section 9.3. Attendance as Waiver. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 9.4. Omission of Notice to Stockholders. Any notice required to be given to any stockholder under any statutory provision, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws need not be given to the stockholder if:
